

BLAST FROM THE PAST

SPECIAL TO THE SUN

Steve Trotter, right, an oyster shucker at Acme Oyster House at Sandestin who's known for his daredevil stunts (including being the first to barrel over Niagara Falls twice and with a partner), was surprised by an unlikely guest at the restaurant Feb. 11. By coincidence, Warren Wills, from Niagara Falls, Canada, arrived wearing a Niagara Falls cap to eat oysters. When Trotter struck up friendly conversation about his Niagara Falls antics, Wills knew exactly what events had occurred and when. In 1995, the time Trotter accomplished his second barrel ride over the falls, Wills was the officer who drove the police vehicle that took him to jail.
